Errington Pet Lodge's owners, operators and staff agree to exercise due and reasonable care and to keep the kennel premises sanitary and property enclosed. Your pet is to be fed properly and regularly, and to be housed in clean safe quarters. All pets are boarded, or otherwise cared for by me without liability on my part for loss or damage from disease, death, running away, theft, fire, injury to persons, other pets, or property by said pet, or other unavoidable causes, due diligence and care having been exercised.

If a pet, which is presented for boarding, is found to have fleas and/or ticks, it will be bathed at owner's expense. The pet is not to be taken off the premises except by the consent of the owner. If the pet becomes seriously ill, the owner shall be notified at once. If the owner does not inform us immediately regarding measures to be taken, or if the state of the pet's health reasonably demands quick action, I shall have the right to call a veterinarian, as designated or if no veterinarian is designated, to call a veterinarian of my choice or take the pet to said veterinarian in either case; or administer medicine or give other advisable attention, within my discretion and judgement, and such expenses, being reasonable in amount shall be paid promptly by the owner of the pet.

If any charges for boarding, grooming, or veterinary services are not paid within ten days after they are due, or if pet is not called for within ten days after time for return of pet, the pet will be sold within ten days after this period by me publicly, privately, or otherwise for the best price available. Notice in writing of such intended sale shall be mailed by registered mail to the owner of the pet at the address given hereon, of less than ten days before date of such intended sale, and no further notice shall be deemed necessary. Any excess amount over charges will be given to the owner, any deficiency is deemed to be due and immediately paid by the owner.

I hereby agree to the foregoing as owner of the pet.
